

Stay Legal. Stay Clean. Stay on the Road!

Distributing, installing and using parts for a Euro VI vehicle without type approval is not just risky in terms of poor durability. It violates European type approval regulations.

In other words, it's practically illegal¹.

So, the next time you install Aftermarket DPFs, Silencers or remanufactured parts, look or ask for the ECE Approval number.

The responsibility is yours.

LOOK FOR THIS STAMP

Air pollution remains the largest environmental cause of premature death and illness in Europe. Type approved Euro VI emission systems reduce harmful pollutants by over 95%.
Source: European Environmental Agency

Dinex is the only Aftermarket supplier with all Euro VI components fully type approved. Stay compliant, with 3 years² unlimited mileage warranty, and European-made quality.

1) In accordance with Regulation (EU) 2018/858 on the approval and market surveillance of motor vehicles and their components. Enforcement, penalties and fines to vehicle owner and driver for non-compliance are determined by the individual EU Member States.

2) 3 years apply to all new DPFs, DOCs, SCRs, and complete silencers. All reconditioned DPFs are covered for 2 years.

